

ABOUT THE LOCAL BUYING PROGRAM IN SOUTH AUSTRALIA

The Local Buying Program (LBP) in South Australia provides opportunities for small businesses in eligible regions to competitively supply goods and services to BHP's Olympic Dam. The LBP commenced in South Australia in 2017 and is delivered in partnership between BHP and C-Res. C-Res is a cost neutral entity that proudly continues to deliver the LBP across all BHP Minerals Australia assets nationwide.

ENGAGING IN BUSINESS COMMUNITIES

In South Australia, C-Res through the Local Buying Program (LBP) actively support and promote business initiatives and events which focus on building business capacity and capability. C-Res is committed to building essential relationships within the business community and maintaining our focus on local business growth and sustainability opportunities.

C-Res has represented the LBP at key networking events and functions, site engagements and businesses activities to ensure buyers, suppliers and our communities can tap into every possible opportunity available through the Local Buying Program. These include:

- Continual supplier engagement visits and 1:1 user training
- Ongoing site visits at OD to assist with training, to discuss utilisation of the LBP with BHP Specialists, and meet with the Community team
- Presenting LBP updates at bi-monthly Roxby Business Forum meetings
- Assisting BHP at the GMUSG Upper Spencer Gulf Trade Conference and Expo
- Hosting a successful Meet the Buyer Event with BHP, connecting BHP Buyers with LBP Suppliers and engaging with community stakeholders in Roxby Downs
- C-Res Board and CEO collaborating with BHP at Olympic Dam
- Working with Global Maintenance Upper Spencer Gulf to encourage engagement with suppliers in LBP eligible regions
- Representation at the Planning Committee meeting for Pride in Workmanship Awards (Rotary Club and Roxby Business Forum)
- Representation at the Community Update by BHP Olympic Dam Asset President, Laura Tyler
- International Women's Day community event, and presenting Awards to key businesswomen as part of the Roxby Downs Forum
